

14th FEBRUARY 2021

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

Kelvin Crosby was the winner at Scroungers on Tuesday. Second was Phil Wegner and Richard Sounness third. A good field of 36 players.

On Thursdays social day 50 bowlers battled it out. John Stone, Bill Astbury and Joan Carpenter found good form to win 6+30. Second was Ken Luff with Steve Cockerell and Dennis Tranter from Des Forbes, Ron Watt and Ian Campbell.

Mid-week, Colin and Pam Anning made the trip to Frankland worthwhile to win their Open Mixed Triples event.

The Ladies Singles Champion this year is again Yvonne Shalders pictured with the runner up Helen Penny after the game.

All smiles is Christine Radford after defeating Karen Wright in the Ladies Singles Championship plate on Saturday.

PENNANTS. Emu point Red remained clear leaders on top of the ladder after winning 5-1 against Mid Beach Gold. Also hanging in there on top is Emu Point Purple with a 5-1 win against Albany Brown. Third division White also have a chance to get to the top of the ladder with a 5-1 win against Golf Blue while Black were defeated against Mid Beach Lime 6-0.

Over 50 people saw a fantastic spectacle of the Mens Singles final. Mattie Mitchell came from behind to win 25-24 from Jon Sharp. What a game.

In the Plate the experienced Len Brown got the jump on Kelvin Crosby but Kel sneaked up to give him a bit of a scare. Too good in the end.

