

Newsletter 4 February 2024

The highlight of the week was the John Cook Memorial Open Mixed Pairs sponsored by WFI Insurance. A full capacity field of 32 teams participated, which demonstrates the popularity of the event. Overall winners were Paul Garbellini and Golf's Gillian Woodyard with a score of 12 + 44. Second were evergreen bowlers Wally Mycock and Jenny Martin with 12 + 35, third were Tery Martin and Carol Cockerell with 12 + 31, fourth were Len and Helen Brown with 12 + 27, fifth were Anne Hunter and Louwrens Smit with 12 + 16 and sixth were Sue Franey and Chris Squires with 9 + 27.

Winners of the John Cook Memorial WFI Open Mixed Pairs with major WFI sponsor Darrell Panizza.

2nd Place – Jenny Martin and Wally Mycock

3rd Place – Carol Cockerell and Tery Martin

4th Place – Helen Brown and Len Brown

5th Place – Anne Hunter and Louwrens Smit

6th Place – Sue Franey and Chris Squires

Shown opposite is The Shed Drinkers team which won the 2024 Jack Attack Competition by one point. Key player in the team was popular Bar Staff member Tanya Walker. Congratulations to Steve and Carol Cockerell who ran a very successful Competition and many thanks to the Club members who supported them.

Even more success for Emu Point bowlers on the road. Helen Penny, Helen McFarlane, Glenda Ward and Helen Brown finished fourth in the recent Kojonup Classic Fours. The team of Anne Hunter, Chris Symonds, Carol Cockerell and Di Buxton were second day winners.

In Pennants, Ladies 1st Division Red lost to Denmark Aqua 0/31 to 4/44 but still remain top of the ladder. 1st Division Purple 4/59 had a great win over Mid Beach White 0/27 and 2nd Division Blue 0/30 lost to Mt Barker Golf 4/42. The Men's 3rd Division Blue 1/42 lost to Mid Beach White 5/66.

Stan Ayre, Leo Tuffley and Max Hawley conquered the extreme heat on Thursday and their score of 6 + 9 left them as the only team to win both games. Second were Wally Mycock, Lindsay McGill and Arthur Gorman with 4 + 8, just pipping Ken Luff, Barry Savage and Peter Wiscombe on 4 + 7.

Only 13 bowlers turned up on Saturday and the winning team was Richard Sounness and Gus Woithe with a score of 6 + 11.

Coming events:

Tues 6 February – Mt Barker Ellen Ridgeway Open Men's Triples

Wed 7 February – Walpole Ladies' Gala Day

Fri 9 February – Frankland Lange's Mixed Pairs

Sat 10 February – Men's 1st & 2nd Division Pennant Season resumes

Sat/Sun 10-11 February – Ladies' IZRR Pairs @ Geraldton

Sun 11 February – Continuation of Men's Championship Fours

Tues 13 February – Golf Carol Staite Agencies Men's Triples

Fri-Sun 16-18 February – Ladies' ILRR Fours @ Brookton

Sunday 18 February – Men's Fours

Tues/Wed 20-21 February – Allen Poor Men's Pairs, co-sponsored by Swan Brewery Men's Health?

