

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

September 17 2023

At Scroungers on Tuesday, Mick Patterson put on a clinic, demolishing his opponents in the second game to finish with 80 points. Ken Luff was second with 71 points and Phil Wegner third with 65.

On Thursday, Allen Poor and Barry Savage were the best team in handling the difficult windy conditions, scoring 6 + 21. John Shaylor, Carol Cockerell and Glen Macaulay were runners-up on a countback from Richard Sounness, Gib Trethowan and Arthur Gorman. Both teams scored 6 + 10

Saturday's Social Bowls was sponsored by Ladies' President Gwen Anning and Men's President Jim Hyde. Winners on the day were the team of Doug Wright, Des Forbes and Di Buxton with a score of 6 + 18. Close behind were Phil Wegner, Steve Cockerell and June Mott with 6 + 15 and third were Anne Hunter, Jim Hyde and Arthur Gorman on 6 + 9. Shown opposite is the winning team, together with sponsor Gwen Anning.

Fixture books are now available at the Club.

The Club will celebrate its 50th Anniversary on Sunday 24 September. All current and former members are invited to attend, and the former are asked to wear Pennant uniform. Please have your name down for Social play by 12.45 pm. There will be a high tea at about 4.00 pm. If you can assist with putting up decorations at 9.00 am on Friday, it would be greatly appreciated.

Past members have been invited to come along on the Anniversary Day, to catch up with old friends and reminisce about their time at the Club. Des Forbes has provided a few photos of past members. How many can you recognise?

Phil Wegner continues to be a maestro at analysing AFL form, picking all the winners again for the second round of AFL Finals. Unfortunately for him, this time, Helen MacFarlane was the closest to selecting the winning margin of the second game. Anne Hunter was the only other person to select both winning teams.

With more and more ladies coming back to the Club for the new season of bowls, someone might be interested in a second pair of Bowls shoes. We have a set of CC Resorts Jackie Bowl shoes size 39 for sale at the Club for $20. From the CCR website, the recommended retail price is $109.95. Reply to this email or contact Bruce Seymour if you are interested in these shoes.
